

Chris Payton

Chris was captured by music when he first picked up the guitar at age four. By applying himself and absorbing as much as possible from his influencers, he soon had a reputation for processing talent beyond his years. He began playing professionally in his early teens. Now, at the age of 23, he has established himself as one of America's youngest, most prominent guitarists.

Chris' professional experience spans several genres, including R&B, gospel, soul, hip hop, pop, alternative, jazz and blues. He has supported major acts including Robin Thicke, Nick Jonas, Ciara, Toni Braxton, Brandy, Future, T.I. and many others. He's made multiple on-air musical appearances on shows such as Jimmy Kimmel Live, The Today Show, Good Morning America, The Tonight Show and more. He is a highly sought-after session musician, Playing on projects like the soundtrack of television remake "The Wiz Live" and motion picture "Sing". He resides in Los Angeles California.

<https://youtu.be/1eougLIIX-0>