

Asaph Alexander Ward

Asaph A. Ward is one of the country's most sought after music producers. Asaph began his music career in the R&B and Pop industry, producing for secular artists, Asaph was unfulfilled. He embraced his true calling: GOSPEL MUSIC.

As a renowned music producer, working with such major companies as Sony, Verve, Universal, Motown, RCA and E One, just to name a few, Asaph Ward, has directly worked with and or produced major recording artists such as David Foster, Kim Burrell, Mary J. Blige, Donnie McClurkin, Dorinda Clark Cole, Yolanda Adams, The Clark Sisters, Grace, Marvin Winans, Mary Mary, Maurette Brown Clark, Anthony Brown and Group Therapy, Smokie Norful, Fantasia, Faith Evans, Vicki Winans, Kierra Sheard, Lowell Pye, Rance Allen, Vanessa Bell Armstrong, Dr. Judith McCallister and a host of others throughout his career. A variety of these projects have gained industry recognition through Grammy, Dove and Stellar Award nominations and honors.

Asaph Ward currently is the CEO of Asaphiversity, a multifaceted production house that specializes in High Level Production and Education. Asaph also serves at The Potters House of Dallas Main Campus as Music Production Manager under the leadership of Bishop TD. Jakes, where he oversees the music production esthetics for the ministry. Asaph Ward possesses a wealth of entertainment and general business expertise that will change the game in the ministry and industry.